(EXPERIMENTAL) ‘HAIKUS’: OF THE NATURAL INCLUSION OF SPACE AND ENERGY

With grateful acknowledgements to Alan Rayner and Zhixing Wang. You will see that I am adopting a flexible version of ‘Haiku’ for the purposes of expressing what is fundamentally simple, but complex in formal language, in as economical a fashion as I can. Please see them as ‘work in progress’ for truthfulness and felicity; other ‘haikus’ may eventually appear…..have a go?

Lime-trees, late summer-drowsy,
Full-leaved in evening-sun, prepare for Seed-fall;
Survival-capsules, ready to open, shoots sprouting.

Slow river meanders;
Light reflects on waters; dark beneath;
If tuned-in, can then see fish, swim.

Pre-Dawn-Dreamings, Spirituals, NOW,
Reflect cultural-genocide;
Even the rocks weep.

Space, receptive, invites;
Energy, fluxing, responds.
I dance, flow-form.

The Big-bang?
Space, energy, time--then creating stops?
Rather, co-creation continuous, in eternal NOW….

Moving, do I carry my own
Empty, energy-field around? Actually Energy in still,
Omni-present space permeates me.

Trees are water-fountains,
Communing through also-sentient mycelial channels;
Not mere ‘sticks in the ground’.

The Dao, ‘Presence-in-Absence’, receives;
The Qi, ‘Life-energy’, responds;
Mutual inclusions, never polarities.

‘A fully-integrated, embodied ‘Unity?’
My ‘Presence’ cannot be so rigorously defined.
‘Dynamic-Coherence’ feels better.

Boundaries, reckoned impermeable?
This may work for machine-parts and wholes.
But we-distinct, are never discrete, ‘absolute singularities.’

Our Dragon claws funnel energy:
Blood flows, internal spaciousness expands.
Flow-movement happens, non-action.

Gluon particles are a travesty of Natural reality!
Consciousness-via the response of Energy in Receptive Space-
Can pool us into coherence.
